

TIBOR R. MACHAN

Research Fellow

Expertise: Political philosophy, business ethics

In addition to his Hoover appointment, Tibor Machan is a professor at the Argyros School of Business and Economics, Chapman University. He is also a professor emeritus of philosophy at Auburn University. The holder of a Ph.D. in philosophy from the University of California, Santa Barbara, he is the author of twenty books, including Capitalism and Individualism: Reframing the Argument for the Free Society (1990) and The Virtue of Liberty (1994). He has also edited numerous books, the most recent being Liberty and Democracy (2002) and Liberty and Equality (2002). He was the cofounder of Reason magazine, which he edited for two years, and served as editor of Reason Papers, a scholarly annual, for twenty-five years.