

JOHN ARTHUR FEREOH

Senior Fellow

Expertise: Positive political theory, political institutions and behavior

In addition to his Hoover appointment, John Ferejohn holds an endowed professorship in the Department of Political Science at Stanford University, from which he also received his Ph.D. His current research focuses on the independence of the judiciary in the American system of government, comparative constitutional adjudication, and rational choice theory. Among other publications, he is the author of Pork Barrel Politics: Rivers and Harbors Legislation, 1947–1968 (1978) and, with Hoover fellow Morris Fiorina and Bruce Cain, The Personal Vote: Constituency Service and Electoral Independence (1987). He is a fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences and the National Academy of Sciences.